

NEW MEMBERS OF THE LEMAN BOARD

PRESS RELEASE, 13 SEPTEMBER 2019

The new board members Lilian Mogensen (left) and Ole Ringheim (right), together with Chairman of the Board, Philippe Ziegler.

NEW STRONG RESOURCES

Following LEMAN's Extraordinary General Meeting, which took place on 12 September 2019, the Board has been expanded with two new members, Lilian Mogensen and Ole Ringheim.

"The new, strong forces will help shape the future of LEMAN and contribute to our ambitious growth strategy", says Thomas Krøyer, Group CEO, and continues, "we are pleased and proud to have succeeded in attracting two skilled board members, who both have extensive competences to contribute to LEMAN's development".

SOLID COMPETENCES CONTRIBUTING TO GROWTH

Previously Executive Vice President at ATP, Lilian Mogensen now serves as a professional Board Member focusing on business development, efficiency, and strategies. Ole Ringheim boasts solid experience from his time as CEO Nordics for DHL and is focusing now on consulting within the transport and logistics industry.

The Board of Directors is now composed of Philippe Ziegler, Chairman, Karen Nielsen, Lilian Mogensen, Charles Duro and Ole Ringheim.

LEMAN GROUP IN PROGRESS

Founded in 1900, LEMAN is a Danish Group, which specializes in transport and logistics solutions. During the last 5 years, LEMAN has achieved a revenue growth of more than 55%. This, among other things, is due to a strong focus on its' ambitious growth strategy. Today the LEMAN Group employs approx. 800 employees and is headquartered in Denmark with subsidiaries in the US, UK, Sweden, Norway and Finland.

For further information, please contact the CEO of the LEMAN Group, Thomas Krøyer, on +45 33 43 42 20 or email thomas.kroyer@leman.com.