

PRESS RELEASE

15 MARCH 2017

Thomas Krøyer's 50th birthday

50th BIRTHDAY - A MAN WITH DANISH AND INTERNATIONAL CAREER

Friday 31 March Thomas Krøyer, the CEO of the LEMAN Group, turns 50.

Thomas Krøyer has a long career in Danish and international freight forwarding at some of the biggest companies within the transportation industry. Thomas started as trainee at Samson Transport in Copenhagen in 1986 and was seconded in UK in 1988-1992, after which he followed DSV when merging with Samson.

In 2004, Thomas was appointed as Managing Director of DSV Road in Germany until 2007. Afterwards, Thomas was VP and later SVP for the Road Division at Kuehne & Nagel in Switzerland and subsequently CEO of Luxembourg.

In September 2014, Thomas joined the LEMAN Group as CEO and ever since he has ensured LEMAN's continued national and international growth in a highly competitive transportation market.

"To be in charge of LEMAN's development from a decentralised company to a strong and united group is an exiting challenge for me and I am looking forward to celebrating a personal milestone with LEMAN," says Thomas Krøyer.

In private, Thomas lives with his wife, Pia and the couple's children in Greve. In his spare time, Thomas plays badminton and a round of golf now and then. Thomas is also a competent skier and pleased to travel and experience the world.

RECEPTION FOR THOMAS

The birthday is celebrated with a reception for partners and business associates as well as family and friends of LEMAN:

Friday 31 March 2017 at 14.00-16.00 at LEMAN, Ventrupvej 6 in Greve.

If you want to join the celebration of Thomas Krøyer, please let us know in an email to tine.willer@leman.com.

For further information, please contact:
Birgitte Hansson, Group Communication & Marketing Manager

